BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Resolution

WHEREAS, Florida farmers and ranchers help feed the world by producing a bounty of nutritious foods, to do this, they rely upon essential partnerships with urban and suburban communities to supply, sell, and deliver finished products to consumers across the U.S. and around the globe; and

WHEREAS, rural and urban communities working together have built our nation's rich agricultural resources so that they contribute to the health and well-being of our country, and to the strength of our economy; and

WHEREAS, during National Farm-City Week, we recognize the importance of this cooperative network, and agriculture employs more than 2 million workers, including farmers and ranchers, shippers, processors, marketers, retailers, truck drivers, inspectors, and others who contribute an annual impact of $148 billion to Florida's economy; and

WHEREAS, as they perform their daily work, farmers and ranchers preserve freshwater recharge areas, wildlife habitat, and greenspace; consumers help farm families maintain their superior natural resource conservation practices by purchasing Florida agricultural products; and

WHEREAS, FARM-CITY WEEK activities celebrate the mutually beneficial relationships that support the quality of life we all enjoy; this week, as we gather with family and friends around the Thanksgiving table, we count these relationships among our many blessings; and

WHEREAS, we commend the many Floridians whose hard work, and ingenuity provide us with food abundance, and reflect the true spirit of our state and nation.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, THAT THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF BREVARD COUNTY, FLORIDA, does hereby proclaim November 16 – 23, 2016, as

FARM-CITY WEEK

We call upon all citizens to acknowledge and celebrate the achievements of all those who, working together, produce and supply our community, our nation, and the world with an abundance of agricultural products.

DONE, ORDERED, AND ADOPTED in regular session, this 6th day of December, 2016.

ATTEST:

CURT SMITH, CHAIRMAN
BREVARD COUNTY, FLORIDA

Whereas, Florida farmers and ranchers help feed the world by producing a bounty of nutritious foods. To do this, they rely upon essential partnerships with urban and suburban communities to supply, sell and deliver finished products to consumers across the U.S. and around the globe.

Whereas, rural and urban communities working together have built our nation's rich agricultural resources so that they contribute to the health and well-being of our country and to the strength of our economy.

Whereas, during National Farm-City Week, we recognize the importance of this cooperative network. Agriculture employs more than 2 million workers, including farmers and ranchers, shippers, processors, marketers, retailers, truck drivers, inspectors and others who contribute an annual impact of $148 billion to Florida's economy.

Whereas, as they perform their daily work, farmers and ranchers preserve freshwater recharge areas, wildlife habitat and greenspace. Consumers help farm families maintain their superior natural resource conservation practices by purchasing Florida agricultural products.

Whereas, Farm-City Week activities celebrate the mutually beneficial relationships that support the quality of life we all enjoy. This week, as we gather with family and friends around the Thanksgiving table, we count these relationships among our many blessings.

Whereas, we commend the many Floridians whose hard work and ingenuity provide us with food abundance and reflect the true spirit of our state and nation.

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the Board of County Commissioners of Brevard County, Florida does hereby proclaim November 16-23, 2016 as

Farm-City Week

We call upon all citizens to acknowledge and celebrate the achievements of all those who, working together, produce and supply our community, our nation and the world with an abundance of agricultural products.
