MEMORANDUM

TO: Frank Abbate, County Manager

RE: Item L.4., CARES Act funding

The Board of County Commissioners, in regular session on August 6, 2020, authorized you to continue accepting applications until the program reaches the $10 million previously approved for the Small Business Program; authorized you to contact the Chair to schedule a Special meeting with the Board of County Commissioners when the amount to be distributed reaches $7.5 million; and approved distribution of payments, with all the caveats, to those who have already qualified.

Your continued cooperation is always appreciated.

Sincerely,

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS
SCOTT ELLIS, CLERK

Kimberly Powell, Deputy Clerk

MEMORANDUM

TO: Frank Abbate, County Manager

RE: Item L.4., CARES Act funding

The Board of County Commissioners, in regular session on August 6, 2020, authorized you to contact the cities with Community Redevelopment Agencies (CRAs) to see if they would be interested in entering into an interlocal agreement to accept the CARES monies, to be distributed, as payment for the CRA funds from the County.

Your continued cooperation is always appreciated.

Sincerely,

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

MEMORANDUM

TO: Marci Murphy, President of CareerSource Brevard

RE: Item L.4., Workforce Recovery Program

The Board of County Commissioners, in regular session on August 6, 2020, authorized an additional $1.5 million allocation to CareerSource Brevard to implement an identical Workforce Recovery Program, with the caveat of capping up to, and inclusive of $16.50 per hour for employees hired through the Program, and allowing monies to be used to offset businesses that have already applied and qualify.

Your continued cooperation is always appreciated.

Sincerely,
