OFFICIAL RECORDS SUPPRESSION REQUEST

NOTICE

Recent legislative changes have expanded the definition of home address to include the parcel identification number and legal description. Removing this information from public records may result in unintended consequences, including but not limited to incomplete title search results and the inability to easily prove ownership of your property. Additionally, the Clerk is prohibited from removing the name of a requestor from the Official Records index unless the name contains a portion of the current home address. You may wish to consult with an attorney regarding the consequences of redacting your information before submission of this form.
