Resolution

WHEREAS, NATIONAL CHILDCARE PROVIDER APPRECIATION DAY, also known as National Childcare Provider Day, is celebrated on May 12, 2023; and

WHEREAS, Childcare providers offer the opportunity for parents who live in Brevard County to work, attend school, or participate in a job training program while their children are in high-quality, nurturing environments; and

WHEREAS, Florida is home to 1.3 million children under the age of 6 years old and nearly 10,000+ children in Brevard County attend one of the 600+ early education programs each day in Brevard; and

WHEREAS, Brevard County provides resources and referral services to families in the School Readiness and Voluntary Pre-Kindergarten programs; and

WHEREAS, there are over 200 childcare programs in Brevard County ranging from small and large private businesses, family childcare homes, faith-based programs, and public school settings; and

WHEREAS, quality childcare programs employ over 1,200 early learning educators to support working families; and

WHEREAS, the dedication of early childcare educators enabled many childcare facilities to remain open at the height of the pandemic to ensure that childcare services remained available for approximately 2,000 Brevard first responders' and essential workers' children to be served; and

WHEREAS, high-quality early education experiences give young children the best start in school and life so families, communities, the State, and the Nation can thrive; and

WHEREAS, NATIONAL CHILDCARE PROVIDER APPRECIATION DAY allows Brevard County to honor its childcare educators' commitment to facilitating high-quality care and early learning to our youngest learners.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of County Commissioners of Brevard County, Florida does hereby proclaim May 12, 2023, as

NATIONAL CHILDCARE PROVIDER APPRECIATION DAY

DONE, ORDERED AND ADOPTED, in regular session this 23rd day of May 2023.
