Brevard County Board of County Commissioners Public Comment Rules

Based on BCC-97 persons addressing the Board of County Commissioners should adhere to the following rules:

1. All speakers shall complete card specifying the agenda item or the subject they wish to address.
2. Speakers should limit comments to the agenda item or the subject matter specified on the card.
3. Public Comments allows comment on any topic relating to business which is not on the meeting agenda.
4. Speakers should limit their comments to matters that are within the control, authority and jurisdiction of the County Commission and to those items that the Board has traditionally expressed a position for the betterment of the community interest.
5. While it is Board policy to promote citizen participation in accordance with the First Amendment protections guaranteed under the United States Constitution, no person addressing the Commission shall make slanderous, profane, or other remarks not protected by the First Amendment, with full recognition that public figures are not subject to the same degree of protection from critical public comments as other individuals.
6. A full copy of BCC-97 is available for viewing at the speakers' table.
