HISTORIC BREVARD

One common misconception about the Revolutionary War is that it was fought in the Northeast, and that was generally true. But the last violent encounter between the British and the Americans in that conflict came in March 1783 when 5 ships met in a skirmish off the coast of Cape Canaveral, bringing the Revolution much closer to home.

HISTORICAL FACTS PROVIDED BY THE BREVARD COUNTY HISTORICAL COMMISSION

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 286.26, Florida Statutes, persons needing special accommodations or an interpreter to participate in the proceedings, please notify the County Manager's Office no later than 48 hours prior to the meeting at (321) 633-2010.

Assisted listening system receivers are available for the hearing impaired and can be obtained from SCGTV staff at the meeting. We respectfully request that ALL ELECTRONIC ITEMS and CELL PHONE REMAIN OFF while the County Commission is in session. Thank You.

This meeting will be broadcast live on Space Coast Government Television (SCGTV) on Spectrum Cable Channel 499, Comcast (North Brevard) Cable Channel 51, and Comcast (South Brevard) Cable Channel 13. SCGTV will also replay this meeting during the coming month on its 24-hour video server nights, weekends, and holidays. Check the SCGTV website for daily program updates at <http://www.scgtv.org>. The Advanced Agenda may be viewed at: www.brevardclerk.us.

In accordance with Resolution 2014-219 Section VIII (8.1) the agenda shall provide a section for public comment limited to thirty (30) minutes following approval of the consent agenda during each regular County Commission meeting. The purpose of public comment is to allow individuals to comment on any topic relating to County business which is not on the meeting agenda. Individuals delivering public comment shall be restricted to a three-minute time limit on their presentation. During this thirty (30) minute segment of public comment, speakers will be heard in the order in which they turned in a speaker card asking to be heard. Any speaker not heard during the first thirty (30) minute segment will be heard during a second public comment segment held at the conclusion of business specified on the regular Commission agenda. With the exception of emergency items, the Board will take no action under the Public Comment section, but can refer the matter to another meeting agenda.
