Commissioner Bolin read aloud a resolution recognizing Eagle Scout Richard Anthony Johnston.

The Board adopted Resolution No. 10-246, recognizing Richard Anthony Johnston for his accomplishments as an Eagle Scout.

PRESENTATION, RE: FULL CIRCLE@BREVARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Linda Humphrey stated she would like to tell the Board about Full Circle; it is a lifelong learning program that is affiliated with Brevard Community deal with item VI.A., Approval, Re: Clear Channel Settlement Agreement first.

REPORT, RE: LEGISLATIVE DELEGATION

Commissioner Infantini stated the Brevard Legislative Delegation will be meeting December 14, 2010; she has been working towards reducing the duplication of efforts between the State and the County; and she would like permission to present before the Legislative Delegation on the of Board to encourage them to work with the municipalities and the County, to reduce efforts between Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) and St. Johns River Water Management District (SJRWMD) rather than things being done twice.

Chairman Fisher inquired what Commissioner Infantini is asking the Board for. Commissioner Infantini replied she would like permission to speak on the Board's behalf regarding duplication.

Commissioner Nelson stated he would like to see what Commissioner Infantini is going to specifically say if she is representing the Board.

Commissioner Bolin stated she agrees with Commissioner Nelson; and the Board needs a full presentation from Commissioner Infantini before giving approval.

Commissioner Infantini stated it is time sensitive; she will see if she can prepare something for the Board; otherwise, she will just speak on her own behalf rather than representing the Board, if that is fine; and she is not trying to blindside any one, with any of her suggestions.

REPORT, RE: CHARTER REVIEW COMMISSION

Commissioner Infantini stated she would like for Dr. Fausnaugh to come to the podium; stated she presented an item to the Charter Review Commission, that was accepted and approved by the voters; it requires the County Commissioner to develop a procedure or a mechanism that will allow for individuals to come before the Board with suggestions, but Brevard County does not have that mechanism in place; and she has invited Dr. Fausnaugh today, to help explain what she needs from the County so the Charter Amendment can move forward.

Dr. Fausnaugh stated she would like to review some background information about how the recommendation came about; she learned of the Charter Review Commissions work about half-way through its process; she found it to be very fascinating because she has been trying to understand more about how County government works; and she went to the hearings, she listened, and there was a great deal of discussion about effectiveness and efficiency, but there was no seeming ability for people to come together to say what certain things can be done in order to improve the processes of effectiveness and efficiency. She stated it seemed to her, that the group was not going to be able to come up with something that it could agree on; she noted it needs a fresh approach; and she proposed the idea of having the Commissioners come up with a process where by citizens can present in writing specific deadlines for response back from the Commission to either say there needs to be more information, yes, or no to justify whatever position was taken in regards to the recommendation. She advised of the reason why she suggested it be in writing, is she believes there are a number of people in Brevard County with backgrounds of process operation, strategic management, and knowledge; often efforts are volunteered to come up with recommendations to study problems that are identified; but without some thoughts, that there is a process, by which can be surely heard, it is very hard to justify the hours taken out of busy lives with expertise and it be presented to the Board. She stated she thinks the design of the process is very important because this it is an Amendment to the Charter, that took no effort to have the voters approve it; there has been no lobbying other than an idea; she thinks the design of this process is going to be very important because it needs to be a process that is elicit from the population with volunteer efforts that can be very insightful into how to move it forward in these challenging financial times; and she mentioned she teaches continuous improvement and has a Minor in Production Operation Management.

Chairman Fisher stated he thinks it would be important for the County Attorney, Scott Knox and staff to get together to figure out how to implement this process; he would like for Dr. Fausnaugh to work with them; and he is interested in the thoughts of the Board.

Commissioner Infantini stated she agrees with what Dr. Fausnaugh has seen in the past; sometimes very well thought out audit reports are seen by external/internal auditors, yet the audits come before the Board and there is no action taken, or the Industry Review Study performed a few years ago also took no action; and now because it is in the Charter, the Board is required to take action and that is why she is bring it up under her reports today, because she wants to make sure the Board gets moving on what is required and mandated by the voters to do.

Chairman Fisher inquired if County Attorney, Scott Knox can tell of any time frames need to be done by the Board, since this was approved by the voters. Attorney Knox responded he does not recall a time frame being specified in the Charter Amendment; and he is presently looking at it online.

Howard Tipton, County Manager, stated staff has been discussing how to approach this matter; he expressed his appreciation to the Board for having the opportunity to look into this; it would seem to have the most impact of an annual cycle that would be gone through; it would be before the budget deliberations started, so there would be opportunity to incorporate some of those thoughts and ideas into the budget process; the Board would really be looking at potentially 60 days for people to weigh into the ideas before it comes to the Board possibly in March 2011 because in January the budget starts to be built; but before public discussion if the Board could discuss any items that come before them perhaps in March, it will allow the opportunity for some of those ideas to be incorporated into the next cycle.

Dr. Fausnaugh stated she thinks it specifies in the discussion that it would be an annual response that she is trying to balance; people are welcome to come and speak before the Board at any time, as she has witnessed; this is more for a formalized process with a required response; and it was intended to be done annually. She stated in her own mind of trying to balance and not have the Commissioners be overwhelmed with the things that do not have sufficient substance to them; when she thinks about designing this process she is trying to anticipate what would be a process that would have a requirement build into it, for substance, study, and discussion with people; and at the same time leave it open and give the public what it needs. She stated she welcomes the opportunity to work on the design from the public's point of view if the Board so wishes.

Attorney Knox stated there is no time frame for getting it done; however, if it is going to be tied to the budget process, it needs to be done by January sometime.

Mr. Tipton stated literally the budgets from the departments are being built very quickly; there are some holidays coming up which is part of the challenge; he inquired how much staff time is anticipated to be used in this process, and is it anticipated for the questions to come through without staff reviewing them and it just coming to the Board for Board's eyes to have, or is staff review time needed, because some building time may be needed; and there is also the issue of finding the staff to review.

Dr. Fausnaugh stated she thinks the part about designing a process is probably to sit down and come up with a list of what the issues are; the balance will be to achieve the process and the design of the issues, she does not have an idea of how it should be done; and she would much rather approach each issue with a solution.

Commissioner Anderson stated there are off-the-shelf technologies available to help implement this as a web base program; an idea can be implemented through the link to see if it has already been proposed to staff; it will provide a person the ability to log on to review the process, the time frame, and if any Commissioner has responded or added input; and he thinks this is a great opportunity to utilize technologies to have something web based.

Chairman Fisher stated Dr. Fausnaugh is encouraged to work with the County Manager and County Attorney, to move the process forward.

VERBATIM TRANSCRIPT OF ITEM I.1., SPEAK UP BREVARD WORKSHOP FOR COMMISSIONERS TO HEAR CITIZEN EFFECTIVENESS AND EFFICIENCY RECOMMENDATIONS – FEBRUARY 11, 2025, BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS MEETING

Feltner: Commissioners, Item I.1. Commissioner Delaney, this is your Item. You're recognized.

Delaney: Thank you. So, um, this is to talk again about the workshop, uh, Speak Up Brevard Workshop, and um, to see if I could get Board support on this. Um, what I had heard from, uh, the Board the last couple of times we've talked about this, Commissioner Altman, you mentioned that you'd prefer something in the evening, um, so, I proposed a 5:00 p.m. meeting; and Commissioner Feltner, you were concerned about the, um, total submissions and about the time duration, and so I believe last time we talked about having a three-hour, uh, time limit on that. And there were 77 submissions, um, and 66 of those, I believe, are from, uh, there are 66 submitters. So, um, with all of that being said, I don't, I don't believe that we're going to have 66 people show up to this workshop, because, you know, there are some people who aren't going to be able to make it. They're, um, you know, they, it's easier for them to make the submission, but for the people who do want to take time out of their day to come and expand, um, uh, explain to us their idea, um, I just really feel passionate about giving the citizens an opportunity to get involved in our community, in our government, um, and in our processes. And throughout this time, um, over the past couple of weeks, I've gotten emails that were, um, submitted, it looked like to all of us from District 2, 3, and 5, so there's, there seems to be interest from, uh, the entire County, and, um, so, I'm hoping to get support. The three dates that I had put out was March 3rd, March 18th, and March 24th, and I didn't know if anybody has any questions or comments.

Feltner: Commissioner Adkinson for a question.

Adkinson: So, um, Commissioner, at the last meeting I also had a question about whether or not the County staff is going to have the opportunity to eliminate, um, those things that we have zero control over. Did you address that?

Delaney: Yes, I'm so sorry about that. Um, I am completely fine with County staff pulling out the submissions that are, um, that we have no control over, of course.

Feltner: Any other questions? Uh, we don't have any cards. Sir? Commissioner Goodson.

Goodson: If you picked one of those dates, would the staff be able to, to review them quick enough to get back before the dates? Frank?

Abbate: If the Board asks us to do that, we have 120-day process to, um, review all the submissions. That is currently underway. Uh, the public information office has coordinated and sent them out to the various departments, um, and if you, uh, if the Board wanted us to give you a list of which ones, um, are outside the Board's jurisdiction, we could do that at any of the dates that, uh, the Board so chose.

Feltner: Okay, any other questions? Okay, did someone say they had a card? Okay, I don't, I don't see cards for, um, J., oh, I.1., I'm sorry. I didn't put my glasses on. That's my fault. Okay, Maureen Rupe. Maureen Rupe.

Rupe: Commissioners, Maureen Rupe, Port St. John. Since 1988, 98, sorry, I have been on three Charter Review Commissions, and in that yearlong process, I have taken very seriously what every person has recommended as value for their quality of life, and I urge the County Commission to do the same. Please don't say it's too time consuming. People have taken their time to speak or write to you. Please listen to their thoughts and suggestions. It is the job of the elected officials, as it is you that the people have elected and placed their confidence. County staff should not have priority to say yay or nay to the various suggestions. I ask the Commissioners to say yes to a special meeting on this subject. This is too important to try to bypass the electors. The people didn't bypass you or you would not be sitting up there. Thank you.

Delaney: Ms. Maureen, can I ask you a question?

Rupe: Sure.

Delaney: If I remember correctly, you were on the Charter Review Commission that passed this, um, past Speak up Barevard.

Rupe: Yes.

Delaney: Is that correct? And so, could you ex, um, explain what it was like in that time? Like what was the . . . the person who proposed this, what was their vision?

Rupe: I cannot remember.

Delaney: Okay.

Rupe: These were yearlong . . .

Delaney: Right.

Rupe: . . . processes. They weren't just, you know . . . it took one year.

Delaney: But the workshop was something that they had talked about doing a, a meeting of this kind.

Rupe: And it was much more open then. Um, the last one I run was 2015, and nothing passed during the Charter Review, nothing.

Delaney: Thank you.

Rupe: I was very disappointed, because I had put forward, and so had other people. They were disappointed.

Delaney: Thank you so much.

Rupe: Thank you.

Feltner: Okay, um, Sarah Hodge. Mr. Hodge will be after that.

Hodge: Commissioners, um, I'm here to request and encourage your support for the proposed Speak up Brevard workshop for the Commissioners to hear the citizens presenting their, their needs and wants. Um, we participated in this program this year, my husband and I, as did other residents that would appreciate an opportunity for our Commissioners to hear our ideas directly from us, as well as the final Commission vote is taken, before the final vo, uh, I'm sorry, I'm . . . losing my card, this has happened too many times. I'm sorry. It happened, um, I went with Sandra when she was escorted out by . . .

Feltner: I didn't lose your card, I have your card, ma'am.

Hodge: You have my card?

Feltner: I said Sarah Hodge.

Hodge: Yes, but, but you just said earlier that . . .

Feltner: You know what?

Hodge: . . . there were no cards.

Feltner: I and J sometimes looks alike when you don't have your glasses on.

Hodge: I'm sorry.

Feltner: A little forbearance, I'm getting old, too.

Hodge: Okay, I'm just, I'm . . . because when two armed guards took us out of the room last time . . .

Feltner: I was no part of that.

Hodge: . . . it, it really . . . um, but anyway, um, I'm sorry, and you deserve your respect and I'm, I'm sorry. Um, it's a unique opportunity for the Commissioners to demonstrate their support for local citizen engagement. Please show your report, your support for the residents of District 2 and throughout Brevard County for voting yes in support of the proposed 2025 Speak up Brevard workshop. Best regards and thank you. I'm sorry, I'm having a difficult time with the card.

Feltner: That's fine, thank, thank you. All right,

Hodge: Thank you.

Feltner: All right, William Hodge.

W. Hodge: I'll pass.

Feltner: Okay, ma'am, over here, did you, did you want to speak? I, I don't think I, I, I don't have one, one for you for I.1. But you'll do one for us, okay?

Connolly: Okay.

Feltner: Okay?

Connolly: Okay, thank you.

Feltner: All right.

Connolly: Good evening. I'm Susan Connolly, I live at 3901 Dixie Highway, Palm Bay, Florida. Charles F. Kettering once said, "A problem well stated is a problem half solved." That is what Speak up Brevard offers, a taking a look at some of the most persistent and complex issues that continue to come before us. Speak up Brevard offers a way for many people to look at problems from many different angles, plus to offer solutions. That is the heart of Speak up Brevard, solutions to problems. I participated in Speak up Brevard for the first time last year, and two of my suggestions were accepted. I want to complement the staff in how the Speak up Brevard is handled. I was impressed with, when I submitted my response last year, and this year, that I received a quick response back with a number and everything so I can easily track it, and I read some of the other submissions. And just by reading some of what the other people said is very helpful and thoughtful, and expanding awareness, and helping resolve these issues. I want to continue to offer thank you to the staff, because part of the whole process is to record, and to review, and to offer to the Commissioners an opportunity to, in a, in a format that is accessible, a way to review, and to revise, and to recommend. So thank you. Thank you all of you for this program. It is vital and I think the workshop can only help us reach again solutions. Thank you.

Feltner: Thank you, ma'am. Okay, I'll ask, is there anyone else who wanted to speak on this Item? All right. Commissioners, discussion on the Item? Okay. Commissioner Delaney.

Delaney: If, if I have support, um, to, in order for me to make a motion, um, I would have to bring forward a date I would imagine? So, is there anybody who would like to talk about the dates if any of those would work at 5:00?

Feltner: Commissioner Adkinson.

Adkinson: Any of those dates work for my schedule.

Goodson: March the 18th is out for me.

Feltner: Okay, any other discussion?

Delaney: If I could ask the staff, um, would the 3rd or the 24th be better for you all? Do you guys have preference?

Abbate: Um, either day, um . . . it's either three days proceeding, or three days after a budget workshop, so it's really pretty much the same either day, Commissioner, would be fine.

Delaney: Okay. All right.

Feltner: And, Commissioner Delaney, go ahead.

Delaney: If you're ready, I was going to make a motion, but if you have more to add . . .

Feltner: No, I was going to ask if there's any other discussion. All right, go ahead.

Delaney: I would like to make a motion to, um, have a Speak up Brevard workshop March 3rd at 5:00 p.m.

Feltner: Okay, we have a motion by Commissioner Delaney. We have a second by Commissioner Adkinson. Clerk will call the roll.

Powell: Commissioner Delaney?

Delaney: Yes.

Powell: Vice Chair Goodson?

Goodson: Yes, yes.

Powell: Commissioner Adkinson?

Adkinson: Yes.

Powell: Commissioner Altman?

Altman: Yes.

Powell: Chairman Feltner?

Feltner: Yes.

Delaney: Thank you, Board.

Feltner: All right. Congratulations.
