RE: Item VII.A. Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program for Section 108 Loan Application of Brevard County Health Facility at 601 East University Boulevard

The Board of County Commissioners, in regular session on August 19, 2014, approved applying for application through the CDBG Program Section 108 loan allowing for future CDBG allocations to fund the Board's portion of the Brevard County Health Facility at 601 East University Boulevard by meeting income requirements, and relieving the Board from having to utilize the General Fund Revenues.

Your continued cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

VERBATIM TRANSCRIPT OF ITEM VII.C., CHUCK NELSON, DISTRICT 2 COMMISSIONER REPORT
AUGUST 19, 2014, BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS MEETING

Bolin Lewis: Commissioner Nelson.

Nelson: I was at a candidate forum last week and Michael Hartman who is a Housing Authority Member indicated that they have a $4 million reserve. And it was only a short time ago, they came before us, and said they couldn't pay their taxes and actually asked us to relieve them of that responsibility. And we signed that agreement and I understand that they are also currently not paying their solid waste assessment. So, I would like for staff to contact the Housing Authority and find out if indeed, that they have the ability to pay their back taxes which they didn't pay, and to find out why they are not paying for their garbage.

Bolin Lewis: Okay, direction to staff. Thank you.
