Subject:

Permission to Advertise for Public Hearing on Ordinance to repeal the Economic Development Ad Valorem Tax Exemption for Midwest Dental Arts, Inc.

Fiscal Impact:

The fiscal impact associated with this action is the administrative cost to place the Notice of Intent on the County's Public Notice webpage.

Dept/Office:

Requested Action:

It is requested that the Board of County Commissioners grant permission to advertise for a Public Hearing to consider adopting an Ordinance repealing the Economic Development Ad Valorem Tax Exemption for Midwest Dental Arts, Inc.

Summary Explanation and Background:

The Brevard County Economic Development Ad Valorem Tax Exemption Program requires that all companies participating in this Program maintain their eligibility each year. The County reviews each company's eligibility through their Annual Report filed each year with the County. The Annual Reports provide the following information: tangible personal property added, the type of business, total sales in Florida and elsewhere, and the number of employees employed by the company in Brevard County. The County also reviews Federal or State employment information and the information obtained in the records of the Property Appraiser's Office whether an ad valorem tax exemption was applied to the company's property.

During the County's review of the companies' Annual Reports, it was determined that Midwest Dental Arts, Inc. no longer qualifies under the guidelines of the Program as outlined in Ordinance 2018-17 - Project Rainbow (Midwest Dental Arts, Inc.) as the company has not maintained the minimum jobs that they represented to the Board that they would maintain.

On July 27, 2023, a certified letter was sent to Midwest Dental Arts, Inc., notifying them that County staff is considering recommending the Brevard County Board of County Commissioners revoke the County's Ad Valorem Tax Exemption granted based on the guidelines of the County's Economic Development Ad Valorem Tax Exemption Program. Midwest Dental Arts, Inc. provided a response that recruitment and retention have been a major struggle for their business. A copy of their memo is attached.

Re: Brevard County's Ad Valorem Tax Exemption Program Ordinance No. 2018-17

Dear Mr. Schropp,

The Board of County Commissioners on July 24, 2018, granted Midwest Dental Arts, Inc. a/k/a Project Rainbow an ad valorem tax exemption for a period of 8 years and 80 percent on real and tangible property added to the County's assessment roll at 1490 Treeland Boulevard SE, Palm Bay, Florida. Companies that participate in the County's Ad Valorem Tax Exemption Program maintain their eligibility as set forth in Ordinance 2018-17. The County reviews the eligibility of each company on an annual basis. A company's annual report along with employment verification information such as Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return (Form 941) is reviewed as well as information from the records of the Brevard County Property Appraiser's Office.

Based on the information provided in Midwest Dental Arts, Inc. 2022 Annual Report, the Company no longer qualifies for the County's Ad Valorem Tax Exemption program. The original application for the ad valorem exemption stated that the Company planned to create 30 new jobs (in addition to maintaining the 28 employees that were working within Brevard County at the time of adoption) with an average wage of $46,000 and invest $5.1 million in improvements to real property and additional tangible personal property added to the assessment rolls. However, as reported on the 2022 Annual Report, the Company reported 4 new jobs. Therefore, County staff is considering recommending the Brevard County Board of County Commissioners revoke the County's Ad Valorem Tax Exemption granted to Midwest Dental Arts, Inc. at the Board's meeting on Tuesday, September 12, 2023, at 9:00 a.m. If you have compelling reasons for the County to reconsider the revocation, please provide this information by Friday, August 11, 2023. You may address your correspondence to the following address: 2725 Judge Fran Jamieson Way, Building C, Room 301, Viera, Florida 32940 or you may call Karen Conde at 321-633-2001 if you need additional information.

To Whom It May Concern:

After receiving your letter about possibly revoking our Ad Valorem Tax Exemption, we as a company reviewed our employees and new hires for the year 2022. Our records show we hired a total of 27 Full-Time Employees in the year 2022. Unfortunately, after the pandemic finding employees & employee retention has become a major struggle for our business. We have kept and maintained 10 of those new hires. Our employee count is not down due to not having work or letting people go, rather employees are resigning from their positions. We would like you to reconsider recommending the board revoke our exemption knowing we are doing everything we can to get new employees on board. If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to reach out.

Regards,

Lamey Schropp, President of Midwest Dental Arts, Inc.

assessed value of the net increase in all tangible personal property acquired to facilitate such expansion of an existing business during that first year.

- (b) The total amount of revenue available to the County from ad valorem tax sources for the current fiscal year is $ 218,681,157.58; $ 731,175.18 is lost to the County for the current fiscal year by virtue of exemptions currently in effect from previous years.
- (c) The tax exemption hereby granted shall be for a term of eight (8) years commencing with the first year the new or expanded facility and tangible personal property are added to the assessment roll,.
- (d) In accordance with the findings of the Board of County Commissioners and the Property Appraiser, the property hereby exempted from ad valorem tax exemption meets the definition of either a new business or expansion of an existing business, as defined by Chapter 196.0125(14) or (15), Florida Statutes.
- (e) The Company shall submit to the County Manager at the beginning of each year an annual report providing evidence of continued compliance with the definition of an expansion of an existing business for each of the eight (8) years during which the Company is eligible to receive ad valorem tax exemption. If the annual report is not received, or if the annual report indicates the Company, no longer meets the criteria of section 196.012(14) or (15), Florida Statutes, the County Manager shall make a report to the Board of County Commissioners for consideration of revocation of this Ordinance granting the tax exemption.
- (f) If the County Manager or designee receives written notice that the company qualifying for an ad valorem tax abatement under the authority of this ordinance has decided not to undertake or complete the new business or expansion of an existing business , including improvements to real property or acquisition of taxable tangible personal property, or has not timely provided the number of jobs qualifying the new business or expansion of an existing business for the ad valorem tax exemption granted under this section, the exemption granted shall be void, shall not take effect and shall not be implemented. If such a notice is received, the foregoing provision shall be self-executing and no further action of the Board of County Commissioners will be required to void the granted exemption. Upon the County's receipt of any such notice, the county manager or designee shall forward the notice to the Property Appraiser along with a copy of this subsection of the ordinance.
- (g) If, upon discovery of the Company's failure to qualify for the ad valorem tax exemption granted by this ordinance, the Board of County Commissioners may revoke this Ordinance, and the company shall reimburse those County ad valorem taxes abated in favor of the Company for that period of time that it was determined that the Company no longer met the criteria of section 196.012 (14) or (15), F.S., which ever was applicable to the exemption granted by this ordinance.

Section 2.     Severability - If any provision of this Ordinance is held to be illegal or invalid, the other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 3. Effective Date - This Ordinance shall become effective immediately upon filing as provided by law. A certified copy of the Ordinance shall be filed with the Office of the Secretary of State, State of Florida within ten days of enactment.
